

XUB MEDIA LAB

The Xavier School of Communication offer a state-of-the-art 2000 square feet media lab containing a TV studio, TV Studio Control Room, Edit Suites for students, Professional Audio Studio, Voiceover Booth, and Green room and Lobby. The Digital Still Photography Room's is equipped with Elinchrom 200 (strobe lights), Backdrop Kit and other lights required for indoor digital photography, including a variety of lenses and other studio accessories. The TV Studio is HD enabled and is completely digital, with Data Video Recorder, and a Panasonic P2HD Portable Recorder. The studio has a professional talkback system and has 6 boundary microphones that are connected to the audio and TV Studio Control Room for quality sound recording for videos.

The Audio Studios is equipped with sound editing and recording software, Pro Tools and Studio 1. The master Edit Suites has the latest cylindrical Apple MacPro with FCP and professional sound monitors. Windows based video editing software media composer is used with HP workstation. Another lab is a 10 FCP edit suite with 10 Dell desktops for designing and print media assignments. Professional lights are used on the studio floor - multi-20, multi-10, cool lights with 4 banks, 3 banks, and 2 banks. There are two spotlights and 4 babies with all the accessories including outdoor lights for the production of short films.